Bible Background

Daniel 3

Belt of Truth
The stories we read in the Book of Daniel take place at a time known as the Babylonian Exile. The city of Jerusalem had been conquered. A large number of Jewish people had been taken from their homes and forced to live in a foreign nation, the land of Babylon. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were young Jewish men who were put into the service of King Nebuchadnezzar. Thankfully, they found favor with those in charge. But this quickly changed when Nebuchadnezzar set up an idol and commanded all people to worship it.

The directions were simple: When the people of Babylon heard the sound of special music playing, they were to stop whatever they were doing and bow down to worship Nebuchadnezzar’s idol. Failure to follow this command was met with a harsh penalty—being thrown into a fiery furnace. The people followed the command. When the music played, everyone stopped what they were doing and bowed down to the idol. Everyone except for three of the Jewish exiles.

Hoping to tarnish the reputation of the young men in the eyes of the king, some Chaldeans reported that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were not obeying the king’s command. The men were questioned, but they did not lie about their disobedience: “We don’t need to answer your question. If our God—the one we serve—is able to rescue us from the furnace of flaming fire and from your power, Your Majesty, then let him rescue us. But if he doesn’t, know this for certain, Your Majesty: we will never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you’ve set up” (Daniel 3:16-18).

The three men were sentenced to death. Perhaps in an effort to prove how serious he really was, Nebuchadnezzar had the furnace heated seven times hotter than normal. Despite the intensity of the heat, the words of the three men held true. The God of Israel was able to rescue them from the flames. Nebuchadnezzar saw for himself a fourth figure in the fire and said, “The fourth one looks like one of the gods” (Daniel 3:25). As a result, Nebuchadnezzar issued a new decree: no one was allowed to disparage the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. The three men were promoted to positions of power.

It is important to note that the Bible does not promise we will always be rescued from harm. What’s important is staying faithful to God. It’s important to stand for what we know to be true. Even if you do something others don’t like, being honest and trusting God is a great idea. The Bible describes truth as a belt. Belts hold things up and keep things secure. God is a faithful rescuer, and the truth holds us up in times of trouble.

Bible Tie-In
North Castle is hidden in a frozen land. The king and knights are on a quest in search of the King’s Armor. But the armor isn’t what they think it is. The new Knights of North Castle learn at VBS that the clues to the armor are found in an ancient book—the Bible—and learn stories helping them understand the qualities each piece represents.
Instant Snow
(Purchased item from Cokesbury)

I. Preparation
Gather materials for this experiment. Test and make sure your instant snow is working.

II. Introduction
Say something like: One thing North Castle has a lot of is snow. Since we are here at North Castle now, let's make ourselves some snow!

Ask: (show materials) Can you tell me what these items are?

Ask: What do you think is going to happen when we put them together?

III. Experiment
Step 1. Add 2 teaspoons of Instant Snow Powder to an empty plastic cup.

Step 2. Measure 2 ounces of water at room temperature and pour into the second plastic cup.

Step 3. Pour the water into the cup with the Instant Snow Powder and watch what happens.

Step 4. Invite Knights to touch the snow. Ask: how does it feel? What did you think when the snow started expanding?

IV. How does it work?
The powder we used to make the snow is what is called a polymer. This one is derived from one like what is used in baby diapers to absorb moisture. What makes it different is that this polymer absorbs the water and the molecules expand. In this experiment, a physical change rather than a chemical change takes place. Instead of a new substance being formed, the instant snow absorbs the water, similar to a sponge. When the water evaporates, the instant snow goes back to its original size and powder-like appearance.

V. Bible Tie-in
A physical change took place because of the presence of water in this experiment. When we understand that God is present with us all the time, our lives can change. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego knew God was present with them—even in the fiery furnace! Their lives had been changed by their relationship with God, and they knew they could stand up for truth because of it. When we see the polymer change into snow, we can remember that our lives are changed because God is with us.

Reflection Time Journaling

Younger Knights
First and second graders complete the Younger Elementary Reproducible Fun Page on page 9.

As Knights are journaling, discuss the following questions.

1. When did King Nebuchadnezzar want the people of his kingdom to bow to his statue? (when the special music played)
2. Why do you think Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego wouldn’t bow? (They knew their God was the one true God.) Do you think you would have bowed?
3. How do you think Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego felt when they saw God’s messenger in the fire?

In the end, King Nebuchadnezzar learned the truth about the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He learned that their God—our God—would rescue them and stay with them in times of need and help them be strong.

Speaking of being strong, who can say our Banner Verse with me? (“Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power.” Ephesians 6:10)

If you wonder how you can stand up for what is true like Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, remember that you don’t have to do it alone. Like our Banner Verse says, you can be strong in the Lord and in the strength of God’s power.

Older Knights
Third through sixth graders complete the Older Elementary Reproducible Fun Page on page 10.

As Knights are journaling, discuss the following questions.

1. What law was passed that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego would not obey? (Everyone must bow to King Nebuchadnezzar’s gold statue when the special music played.)
2. Why do you think they wouldn’t obey this law? (They wouldn’t bow to any god but their God.)
3. Do you think there are laws today that people who follow God might not want to obey?
4. What might make someone who follows God feel they should not obey a law?
5. Can you think of some ways you might want to stand up for truth?

Because Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego stayed true to their God, King Nebuchadnezzar learned that their God—our God—would stay with them in time of need and help them be strong.

Speaking of being strong, who can say our Banner Verse with me? (“Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power.” Ephesians 6:10)

Like Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you might be an example to others of how God can help you stand true and be strong in the Lord and in the strength of God’s power if you will trust God to be with you.
Closing Prayer

Dear Knights of North Castle, before I bid thee farewell, let us join together in prayer.

Invite the students to stand and march in place as they echo each line of this prayer, to the cadence of “Sound Off” or “The Duckworth Chant.”

God is caring, God is kind.
God is caring, God is kind.

Giving love and peace of mind.

We can follow God’s own way,

By sharing, caring every day,

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego Stand True

Daniel 3

Our first Bible lesson is from the Old Testament. In the book of Daniel, we find three young Jewish men—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—who had been taken into the service of King Nebuchadnezzar. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego found favor with King Nebuchadnezzar, but fell out when the king commanded everyone to worship an idol. The three young men said they would only worship God! Because of their decision, the king sentenced them to death and had them put in a fiery furnace. Their faith in God remained strong, however, and God kept them safe. When the king saw that God protected Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the fiery furnace, he made a law that no one would disparage the God of these three young men.
